A MIGHTY Fortress is our God,
 A trusty Shield and Weapon;
 He helps us free from every need
 That hath us now o'ertaken.
 The old bitter foe
 Means us deadly woe;
 Deep guile and great might
 Are his dread arms in fight:
 On earth is not his equal.

With might of ours can naught be done,
 Soon were our loss effected;
 But for us fights the Valiant One
 Whom God Himself elected.
 Ask ye, Who is this?
 Jesus Christ it is,
 Of Sabaoth Lord,
 And there's none other God;
 He holds the field forever.

Though devils all the world should fill,
 All watching to devour us,
 We tremble not, we fear no ill,
 They cannot overpower us.
 This world's prince may still Scowl fierce as he will;
 He can harm us none:
 He's judged, the deed is done,
 One little word o'erthrows him.

The Word they still shall let remain,
 Nor any thanks have for it;
 He's by our side upon the plain
 With His good gifts and Spirit.
 Take they then our life,
 Goods, fame, child, and wife,
 When their worst is done,
 They yet have nothing won:
 The Kingdom ours remaineth.

Preface

HE object of this genealogical record is to preserve the history of the Leibensperger family, from the ancestor and his descendants, down through the ten generations. It was started by the David Leibensperger descendants, at their first reunion in 1925. These were subsequently joined by the descendants of other branches so that this Leibensperger Family Reunion now represents most of the branches of our family.

Solomon Leibelsperger of Moselem Springs, Pa., of the Frederick Leibelsperger branch, attempted a family record between 1879 and 1884. This was in the form of an incomplete family tree, and accepted George Adam Leibelsperger as the ancestor, who is said to have come from Darmstadt, Hesse, Germany, in 1739, at the age of 16 years. This claim, as shown below, is not justified.

Through the American Consul General at Franfort-on-Main, Germany, I got in touch with Hans Meyer, a genealogist, to search the records at Darmstadt, for George Adam Leibelsperger, (giving various spellings of the family name.) His reply dated Karlsruhe, Dec. 16, 1931 (translated) is as follows,—

“On the basis of your inquiry of Oct. 31, 1931 I have been to the Hessian State Archives at Darmstadt; also, in the Bayer State Archives at Speier and Baden. Took up the investigation further at the General National Archives at Karlsruhe, which, however, gives no indication of the origin of the Leibersberger family.”

Oscar P. Leibensperger, the first President of our family reunion, was permitted to make a duplicate of the original Solomon Leibelsperger record, which record was turned over to me when I became the third President of our family organization in 1930. It was subsequently decided to add to this record, presumably with the object of eventually having a family history. However, no one offered to undertake the task, and I assumed that difficult role, which has required much of my time, in a period of ten years.

It is to be regretted that some parts of this record are not as complete as they should be. This is due to the failure of some descendants to respond to inquiries, and to others who refused to cooperate.

It is not to be implied that no errors may be found in this volume. In the acquiring of the material presented, I had to depend largely on correspondence, as it would have been impossible for me to make personal contact with the widely located descendants. Great effort was made to verify data, but some had to be accepted as submitted, when this could not be done.

With the Solomon Leibelsperger family record as a basis, other sources of data include the Pennsylvania Archives, inscriptions from cemetery tombstones, church and court house records, public libraries, county histories, family Bibles, &c. I have received splendid cooperation from Charles R. Roberts, Rev. Melville B. Schmoyer, Rev. John Koch, Rev. A. S. Leiby, Dr. John Baer Stoudt, Prof. William J. Hinke. Also from numerous individuals of the various branches of our family, among them, Mrs. Elwood W. Feick, (d) Paul C. Leibensperger, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Miss Gertrude M. Kelchner, Allen H. Leibensperger, Mrs. Calvin Lesher, Mrs. Fred Wessner, Chas. W. Rutschky, Jr., William F. Livelsberger, The Stump family, Edwin K. Gordon, Mary Gordon Cox, Katharine J. Livensparger, Miss Elizabeth Malla-lieu, and a host of others.

It is necessary to use a system of numbering, because of the large number of descendants of the various branches, and to trace the descendants of the various heads of families. As there can be as many as ten generations, it would be impossible to show these in consecutive order on a page. Therefore, whenever a head of a family has a number of children and grand children, he is given a number which is later carried out on another page, where he and his children are fully listed.

The light type number following the name of a descendant indicates the generation to which he belongs, which for the ancestor is (1), and shows the generations back to the ancestor. The heavy type number on the margin indicates that his descendants are carried forward under the same marginal number but in brackets, thus (). Each branch begins again at the beginning, using the ancestor as number (1) and completes the generations for each in consecutive order.

Of the ancestors family, a record can be found of but four children, and of these the descendants of the son, George Adam, are the only ones that can be traced to the 10th generation. George Adam, had a family of 11 children, and of these 6 sons and 1 daughter had large families, who are shown under separate branch chapters.

There is much variation found in the spelling of the family name, including the ancestor, and throughout the generations. This is probably due to the ancestor, (and several generations after him) making his (X) mark as a signature. I adhere to the spelling as I find it recorded.

I make use of the following and other abbreviations, to conserve space.—(b) born, (d) died, (bur) buried, (m) married, (oc) occupation, (bapt) baptized, (Ch) Church, (Cem) Cemetery, (Res) residence, &c.

These brief explanations should suffice for any one to trace his own ancestry. If the numerous descendants of our family could realize what our forefathers had to endure to establish and maintain their homes in a new land, they should be willing to have their names and deeds perpetuated in a family history and give it active support.

Introduction

IT IS claimed that one hundred thousand immigrants came to America during the 18th century. Many of these came to our shores at Phila., Pa., and their names are preserved in the State Archives at Harrisburg, Pa. Prof. I. Daniel Rupp published a list of some 30 thousand names of immigrants in 1856. But a larger and more accurate list was published by the Pa. German Society in its three volumes of Pa. German Pioneers in 1934.

These immigrants were very much dissatisfied with their lot in the fatherland, for various reasons. One reason, among the Germans, was to avoid military training. A young man was compelled to serve three years of training in the regular army. The more important reasons were to seek for civil and religious liberty. It often happened that they did not have sufficient funds to pay the passage charge to destination, which I have reason to believe was the case with our ancestor. Rev. J. W. Bittner describes this situation as follows, viz.—

“The trip down the Rhine (for the German immigrant) cost about $35. And from Rotterdam to Phila., Pa., ten pounds. Many spent twice these amounts, from their homes to Phila., Pa., during the trip. Those who were unable to pay their passage money on arrival at Phila., Pa., were bound out to the highest bidder to serve until the amount due was earned, which might require five or more years of service. These were known as Redemptioners.”

The ships in which our forefathers came were mere sail boats, driven by the wind, and were small in comparison with our ocean liners of today. Rev. J. W. Bittner describes them as follows, viz.—“The smallest was 63 ft. long and 21 ft. wide. The hold was 9 ft. 7½ inches deep. The ship’s tonnage was 108 tons. The largest ship was 99 ft. long and 26 ft. wide with a tonnage of 311 tons. Few ships carried more than 300 passengers, and many carried much less. Each ship was known by a name.”

In the "Pa. German Pioneers," Vol. I, p. 33 is described a "Journey to Pa," by the German immigrants, from which I quote, in three parts, as follows, viz.:

"THE FIRST PART, and by no means the easiest was the journey down the Rhine to Rotterdam. The Rhine boats from Heilbronn to Holland have to pass 26 custom houses, at all of which the ships are examined, which is done to suit the convenience of the custom-house officials. In the meantime the ships with the people are detained long, so that passengers have to spend much money. The trip down the Rhine lasts therefore four to six weeks. When the ships come to Holland they are likewise detained. Because things are very dear there, the poor people have to spend nearly all they have, during that time."

"THE SECOND STAGE of the journey was from Rotterdam, (in an English ship) to one of the English ports. In England there was another delay of one to two weeks, when the ships were waiting, either to be passed through the custom-house, or for favorable winds. When the ships had for the last time weighed their anchors, the real misery begins with the long voyage. For from there the ships, unless they have good wind, must often sail from eight to twelve weeks before they reach Phila. But even with the best wind the voyage lasts seven weeks."

"THE THIRD STAGE of the journey, or the ocean voyage proper, was marked by much suffering and hardship. The passengers being packed densely, like herrings, without proper food and water, were soon subject to all sorts of diseases, such as dysentery, scurvy, typhoid and smallpox. Children were the first to be attacked and died in large numbers. The terrors of disease were much aggravated by frequent storms, through which ships and passengers had to pass. The misery reaches the climax when a gale rages for two or three nights and days, so that everyone believes that the ship will go to the bottom with all human beings on board. In such a visitation the people cry and pray most piteously. When in such a gale the sea rages and surges, so that the waves rise often like mountains, one above the other, and often tumble over the ship so that one fears to go down with the ship; when the ship is constantly tossed from side to side by the storm and waves so that no one can either walk, or sit, or lie, and the closely packed people in the berths are thereby tumbled over each other, both the sick and the well, it will be readily understood, that many of these people, (none of whom had been prepared for hardships) suffer so terribly from them that they do not survive. When at last the Delaware River was reached, and the "City of Brotherly Love," hove in sight, where all their miseries were to end, another delay occurred. A health officer visited the ship and if any persons with infectious diseases were discovered on the ship, it was ordered removed one mile from the city.

There was but one Leibensperger who came to these shores in the Ship Dragon from Rotterdam, via Plymouth, and landed at Phila., Pa., Sept. 30, 1732. The Commander, Chas. Hargraves, lists the passengers transported on his ship 70 men, 53 women and 62 children, a total of 185. But at the Court House, in Phila., Pa., he accounts for only 170 persons imported. Evidently 15 persons died during the voyage.

The following list of three signatures of the ancestor are shown in Volume I of the "Pennsylvania German Pioneers"

(List 26C page 98.) Hans George (X) Leipersberger—
(Oath of Abjuration).

Please note, that the christian name in lists A and B shows Jacob, while in list C, it is Hans Georg. Also, that there is a variation in the spelling of the surname in all the lists. Likewise, the (X) mark indicates that these signatures were written by other Persons.

The editor of the "Pa. German Pioneers," Prof. William J. Hinke, Ph. D., D. D., assures me, that these three lists have reference to one person only. He writes, "My examination of the lists show, that there were at least three different persons who made the lists. Lists A and B were made by English clerks who simply misunderstood the name as it was pronounced to them. List C was made by a clerk who understood German, as is evident from the fact that he spelled the German christian names correctly. The last one is therefore the most likely to have the name correctly." This has been verified.

I have received requests from members of our family who are seeking data for admission as sons and daughters of the Revolutionary War. I find that the Pa. Archives have a record of four grandsons of the Ancestor, (sons of George Adam Leibelsperger) who took up arms and joined the men and boys of the American Revolution. They are as follows, viz.:—

JOHN LYBELSBERGER (3) Lieutenant, 6th Battalion, Northampton Co. Militia. Lt. Col. Henry Geiger, Oct. 26, 1780—8th Company, Capt. Adam Diehl. (Pa. Archives, 5th Series, Vol. 8, page 454).

JOHN LYBELSBERGER (3) Lieutenant, 7th class, 8th Company—May 18, 1781. Willing to March. (Pa. Archives, 5th Series, Vol. 8, page 466).

JOHN LEIBESPERGER (3) Lieutenant, 7th class, 6th Battalion, Northampton Co. Militia. Capt. Geo. Smethers, substituted for Lieut. Peter Nothstein, May 12 and July 11, 1781. (Pa. Archives, Series 5, Vol. 8, pages 469-525).

CHAPTER II

The Ancestor, John George Leipersberger

JOHN GEORGE LEIPERSBERGER was born at Schmerach, Germany, Aug. 5, 1693. His father, Stephen Leipersberger, d. May 25, 1693, before his son's birth. His mother was Ursula Leidig, and they were married on July 11, 1682. She married her second husband, Jacob Spruegel, in 1694, and lived at Ilshofen, Germany, where she died about 1730. But, as no family records can be found there, the ancestor evidently did not live there, after his marriage, until after his mother died. No record can be found of his marriage or of the birth of any children he may have brought to America. He probably was married and lived in his wife's parish. As her maiden name is not known, no search can be made for her in Germany.

The question has been asked concerning the ancestors religious beliefs. He was baptized, at birth, in the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation at Lendsiedel, Germany. His Protestant ancestry is further proven by his declaration for naturalization, at Phila., Pa., in Sept. 1765. While practically nothing is known about his wife, Catharine, there is no reason to suppose they were anything but good Lutherans in Germany and America.

In the first church Book of Records of the Oley Hill Church, at Bechtelsville, Pike Township, Berks Co., Pa., there is a brief record of the ancestor and his wife, in connection with the marriage of a daughter, Anna Sabina, as follows,—“Father: John George Leibesperger, from Ilshofen in Wurttemberg. Mother: Catherine. They came to America in 1732.”

Rev. John Baer Stoudt submits as follows, viz.—“George Leibelsperger was naturalized by the Supreme Court, sitting in Phila., Pa., from Sept. 24th, to 28th, 1765. He resided at the time in Weisenberg Township, Northampton County (now Lehigh County), and declared, that he had taken the Holy Sacrament, last on Sept. 8, 1765.”

The above was the only member of our family to be naturalized. It must therefore have reference to our immigrant ancestor, who was almost 72 years old then. He must have felt the urgent need to take this step in order to obtain citizenship for himself, and particularly for his family. It also proves that he was a Protestant, which was one of the requirements for naturalization.

The fact that our ancestor did not try to take up any land, until $5\frac{1}{2}$ years after arriving in America, leaves the impression that he may have landed as a "Redemptioner." Also, when he did choose a tract of land it proved undesirable, as he soon disposed of it. The following is a copy of the warrant to survey the tract.

—"Pennsylvania, SS:—by the Proprietaries."—

"Whereas, Hans George Leibersberger of the County of Philadelphia, hath requested that we would grant him to take up 200 Acres of Land, adjoining George Kester and Peter Federolfe, in Oley Mountains, in said County of Philadelphia, for which he agrees to pay to our Use the sum of Fifteen Pounds, Ten Shillings current Money of this Province for each 100 Acres and the yearly Quit-rent of one Half-penny Sterling for every Acre thereof: These are therefore to authorize and require thee to survey, or cause to be surveyed unto the said Hans George Leibersberger, at the Place aforesaid, according to the Method of Townships appointed, the said Quantity of 200 Acres, if not already surveyed or appropriated, and make Return thereof into the Secretary's Office, in order for further Confirmation; for which this shall be thy sufficient Warrant; which Survey in case the said Hans George Leibersberger fulfill the above Agreement within 6 months from the Date hereof, shall be valid, otherwise void.

Given under my Hand and the lesser Seal of our Province at Philadelphia, this 31rst Day of March Anno Dom. 1738.

To Benjamin Eastburn, Surveyor General.

Signed, Thomas Penn."

(Pa. Archives—Series 3, Vol. 24, Page 29.)

The above tract was surveyed on Sept. 11, 1740, on which 212 acres were returned. The survey is recorded in Survey Book A, Volume 25, page 230. There is a note on the bottom of the survey which states, that George Leibersberger signed his warrant to Jacob Beard. The tract is still unpatented, and held as vacant land by the State of Pa.

In all subsequent warrants and patents the first christian name of the ancestor, Hans (John) is dropped, and the spelling of the surname varies.

After the ancestor disposed of his undesirable tract, in the Oley Hills of Berks Co., Pa., he was granted warrants for land in what is now Weisenburg Township, Lehigh Co., Pa., as the Pa. Archives attest. This land was divided into sections that bore names.

(Series 3, Vol. 24, P. 143)

1. Warrant to George Lubelsperger for 100 acres, dated May 22, 1745. Situated, when surveyed, above Macungy in Bucks Co., showing 103 acres, 91 perches, section, ("Mis fortune".)

(Series 3, Vol. 24, P. 143)

2. Warrant to George Leipesberger for 25 acres dated April 4, 1748. Situated near Maxetawney (Weisenburg Township) Bucks Co., when surveyed, showing 25½ acres, adjoining lands of Henry Mayer, section, ("Resolution".)

(Series 3, Vol. 26, P. 116)

*3. Warrant to George Leipsberger, for 2 tracts of 20 acres each, dated April 2, 1757. Situated in Weisenburg Township, Northampton Co. The first tract when surveyed showed 29 acres, 132 perches, and adjoined his, and lands of Jacob Markel, (George's Addition) Sec.

(Series 3, Vol. 26, P. 117)

*4. Warrant to George Leibersberger, for two tracts, dated April 28, 1767. Situated in Weisenburg Township, Northampton Co. The first tract, for 30 acres, surveyed 32 acres, 23 perches, in (George's Plain) Sec. and is bounded by his own, Henry Mayer's, George Bryning's and Michael Bowerman's lands. The second tract is shown below.

The total survey of the above 4 warrants exceeds 191 acres, (6% additional is allowed for roads) and have been recorded in one patent (deed) to George Leibesberger, at Phila. Pa., Nov. 25, 1767. (See Patent Book AA, Volume 10, page 179.)

* The second tracts on these warrants were surveyed and patented separately.

*4. THE SECOND TRACT on Warrant to George Leibesberger dated April 28, 1767, when surveyed, showed 52 acres, 103 perches, and was patented to him May 27, 1767. Section ("Young Orchard") (Recorded in Patent Book AA,—Volume 8, page 350.)

*3. THE SECOND TRACT of 20 acres on Warrant to George Leibesberger, April 2, 1757, when surveyed, returned 34 acres, 60 perches and the patent was issued to Jacob Grim. No name is given for this tract.

On the Warrants that were issued to the Ancestor, in 1745—48-57-67, surveys were duly made and a total of 243 acres returned on these surveys. It appears that these lands were all situated in Weisenberg Township and adjoined, or became a part, of the first tract. However, no Patents, (deeds) were granted on any of them until May and Nov. 1767, and were issued to George Leibesberger. It is probable that the Ancestor died in 1767 and that his son, George Adam, (who seldom used his middle name) received these Patents.

It should be noted that when Pennsylvania was formed and named in 1682, the three original counties were Bucks, Chester and Philadelphia. And that for a period of 47 years no additional counties were formed, and only eight more during the "Colonial Period." Thus Northampton Co. was sliced from Bucks Co. in 1752, and not until 1812 was Lehigh Co. formed from Northampton Co. Likewise, Berks Co. was created from parts of Phila., Chester and Lancaster counties in 1752. Weisenberg Township, now in Lehigh Co., adjoins Maxatawny Township in Berks Co., the two townships in which the Ancestor and his son finally located.

Just where the ancestor lived between his arrival in Phila. in 1732, and the receipt of his first warrant for land in the Oley Hills of Berks County in 1738, is not known. The fact that he received his second warrant for land above Macungy in Bucks Co., in 1745, (later Northampton Co. and finally Lehigh Co.) indicates that his stay in the Oley Hills was probably less than a decade.

*The second tracts on these warrants were surveyed and patented separately.

This accounts for the meager data about our ancestor at the Oley Hill church. Neither he or his wife are shown on the Register of the First Book, as members. This church was organized in 1741 and built in 1747. The record was begun in 1753, by the Lutheran pastor, Rev. Lucas Rauss, who recorded ten families and the baptisms of their children. It mentions two daughters, Anna Sabina and Anna Rosina, who married and had families in this parish.

The Ziegel Church in Weisenberg Township should have had some record of our ancestor. It was organized in 1745 and its first log church dedicated July 29, 1750. A second church was dedicated in the fall of 1796. The third church, dedicated in 1864, was destroyed by lightning on June 6, 1887. While the fourth church dedicated in 1889 was also destroyed by lightning on Oct. 4, 1907. Whatever records these churches may have housed, were lost in these two fires.

It does seem, that as the ancestor had so many acres of land, there would be some record to show what disposition was made of it. But a thorough search of the records, at Easton, Pa., do not show any will or inventory on file there. Apparently, he disposed of his property during his lifetime.

The available family records in America of himself, his wife or his children are so meager that only a brief summary can be made of them.

The "Oley Hill Church Book" shows him, John George Leibesperger, from Ilshofen, in Wurttemberg, Germany, his wife, Catherine, (no maiden name) and that they came to America in 1732. As they finally settled near the Ziegel church in Weisenberg Township, it is believed that they died and are buried on the old Cemetery there. On this Old Ziegel Church Cemetery very few tombstones remain, so that most of the graves are no longer marked, or can be found. It appears that he died about 1767, or shortly thereafter. I can only find a record of four of their children, but there must have been more. They are as follows:—

4 children (2nd generation)

- 2 1. ANNA SABINA LEIBESPERGER m. John Hess.
- 3 2. GEORGE ADAM LEIBERSPERGER m. Catharina Barbara Kuntz.

3. ANNA ROSINA LEIBERSPERGER b. 1735, confirmed April 8, 1750, at the New Hanover Montg. Co. Lutheran Ch., aged 15 years, m. John George Holzschuh and had one daughter.

1 child (3rd generation)

- I. SABINA HOLZSCHUH, bapt. May 18, 1755 at the Oley Hill Ch. Sponsors, John Hess and wife Sabina.
4. ANNA (or MARIE) BARBARA LEIBELSPERGER, confirmed at Heidelberg Ch., 1762 (no age stated)—probably b. 1747. (From the Record of Rev. Daniel Schumacher.) (1754-1774.)

(2) ANNA SABINA LEIBESPERGER (2), (John George 1) b. April 1717, m. Jan. 1740, John Hess, b. May 1717. (6 children).

The complete record of Anna Sabina and her children is shown in the first Church Book of Records of the Oley Hill Ch. (1741-1800) part II, page 31, and is number five of the ten families therein recorded. The English translation is as follows—

5. John Hess, b. May 1717. Father: Thomas Hess, from the Hanan district from the Honneberg. Mother: Margaret. He came to America with his father and mother, in 1730. In January 1740, he married Anna Sabina, b. April 1717. Father: John George Leibesperger, from Ilshofen in Wuerttemberg. Mother: Catharine. They came to America in 1732.

Their children were (3rd generation)

1. ELIZABETH, b. 1741, d. 1743, almost 2 years old.
2. HENRY, b. Feb. 1742, d. 1746.
3. MARGARET, b. Feb. 1, 1745.
4. JOHN, b. Feb. 1747, d. ½ year old.
5. CATHARINE, b. May 7, 1750.
6. ANNA SABINA, b. Feb. 8, 1753.

As three of these children died young, it is believed that they were buried at the Oley Hill Ch., but no marked graves can be found for them. Probably no cemetery had been laid out then.

The other three may have survived and been married, but I can only find one record of the youngest daughter, Anna Sabina, "from the record of the Rev. Daniel Schumacher." It was on March 12, 1769, that John Daniel, son of George Adam and Catharina Barbara Leibelsperger, was baptized at the Ziegel Ch. and John Daniel Stambach and Anna Sabina Hess, single, were the sponsors.

(3) GEORGE ADAM LEIBERSPERGER (2) (John George 1), b. Sept. 29, 1726, d. Sept. 26, 1799, m. Catharina Barbara Kuhntz, Sept. 26, 1749 (daughter of John Jacob Kuhntz), b. Jan. 13, 1730, d. Sept. 25, 1809. They were confirmed at the New Hanover Lutheran Ch., she in 1744 and her husband, on April 8, 1750, after their marriage. They are buried on the Old Ziegel Ch. Cem. and have marked graves, but the tombstones are in such condition that the inscriptions cannot be read.

On July 6, 1750 an agreement for worship in the first Ziegel (log) Ch., (by a committee of Lutheran and Reformed) was signed. George Adam (X) Leibesperger was one of the Lutheran signers.

He lived and tilled the lighter soil of his acres in Weisenberg Township, where chestnut trees abounded, and where all his children must have been born. Then, towards the close of the Revolutionary War, he moved into Maxatawny Township, (where the soil was a deep clay and covered by large oak trees), where they both died. They had 8 sons and 3 daughters.

11 children (3rd generation)

1. CATHARINA LEIBELSPERGER, b. about 1751, confirmed at the Ziegel Ch. on Easter 1766, m. Henry Kuhns. Probably bur. in the old Ziegel Ch. Cem. (No issue).
2. A son (name unknown). Probably died at birth.
3. JACOB LEIBELSPERGER, m. Eve Elizabeth, (maiden name unknown).
4. JOHN LEIBELSPERGER, m. Maria Catharine, (maiden name unknown).
5. CHRISTINA LEIBELSPERGER, b. Sept. 29, 1759, confirmed at the Lehigh Ch., 1774, d. July 10, 1841, m. Jacob Hermany, b. Nov. 13, 1755, d. Sept. 14, 1836 both buried at Maxatawny Zions Ch. Cem. (No issue).
6. FREDERICK LEIBELSPERGER, m. Hannah Margaret Haines.
7. DANIEL LEIBELSPERGER, b. 1763, bapt. Feb. 12, 1763, at the Lehigh Ch. Sponsors, Daniel Stettler and Christina, wife of Rev. Jacob F. Shertlein, the pastor. (Probably died young).
8. MATHIAS LEIBELSPERGER, m. Catharina Lichtenwalner.
9. PHILIP LEIBELSPERGER, m. Barbara Lichtenwalner.
10. DANIEL LEIBELSPERGER, m. Catharina Leidig.
11. MAGDALENA LEIBELSPERGER, m. John Kemmerer.

The (3rd generation) children generally spelled the family name Leibelsperger, as shown above.

The following extracts from deeds indicate, that George Adam Leibersperger conveyed to his oldest son, Jacob Leibersperger, certain tracts of land shortly before his death.

Reading, Berks Co. Pa. (D. B.—16—p. 370) July 3, 1799.

“Between George Adam Leibersperger of Maxatawny Township in the County of Berks, yeoman, and Barbara his wife, and Jacob Leibersperger of the same place, yeoman, in consideration of 2500 pounds, gold and silver money of Pennsylvania, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged. Convey parcels or pieces of land, messuage, tenement and plantation, situated in Maxatawny Township, Berks Co., Pa. In line of the side of three tracts—line of Anthony Fisher’s land, Jacob Fisher’s land and lands formerly of Anthony Fisher and Henry Wetstein.”

Number 1 containing 42 acres 44 perches.

Number 2 containing 3 acres 155 perches.

Number 3 containing 93 acres 40 perches.

“Being three tracts of land which by two Proprietary Patents dated May 1, 1775 and recorded in Rolls Office of Pa., Patent Book AA, Volume 14, pages 461-462, was granted to George Adam Leibesperger.

“George Adam Leibesperger conveys to Jacob Leibesperger his heirs and assigns, subject to support, livelyhood and maintenance of said George Adam Leibesperger, and Barbara, his wife, as agreed, during the natural life of said George Adam Leibesperger, and Barbara his wife, and their heirs and assigns.”

Received the same day the sum of 2500 pounds.—George A.

CHAPTER III

Zions Church of Maxatawny Township

While no records are available to verify it, yet it is believed that the ancestor and his wife worshipped at the first Ziegel Church in Weisenburg Twp. Lehigh Co. Pa., and are buried there, on the old cemetery in unmarked graves. It is known that his son, George Adam, was one of the organizers of that church, that he and his family worshipped there, while residing in the vicinity, and marked graves of him, his wife and some members of their family are found on the old Ziegel Church cemetery.

As the third generation of our family made their homes in Maxatawny Twp. Berks Co., adjoining Weisenburg Tp. in Lehigh Co., there was no school or church in that vicinity. Therefore, Jacob Leibersperger (3) son of George Adam (2) donated three quarters of an acre of ground towards the erection of a school house. This land was situated in Maxatawny Twp., Berks Co. Pa., along the great road leading to Kutztown, Pa. and bounded by lands of Jacob Leibersperger (3) Daniel Siegfried and Peter Hehn. On Oct. 20, 1817, two trustees for the supporters of the school house were chosen to make a school arrangement.

Record of the above transfer of land is shown in the Berks Co. Court House Deed Book 31, page 191, dated April 13, 1818, in part as follows:—"The said Jacob Leibersperger with Eve his wife, for divers good causes and the sum of one dollar, convey this tract of land to Daniel Hoch and John Siegfried, Jr., in trust for themselves and others, for the purpose of erecting a school-house thereon." Matthias Leibersperger (3) son, and Henry Metzger, son-in-law of George Adam, (2) were then chosen a building committee and under their supervision the school house was erected.

No picture is available of this schoolhouse, which was built of logs, probably oblong in form and supplied with long backless benches for seats. It appears to have been used for church services up to the time the stone church was built. Also, for a church school and for "pay" or subscription school purposes until some time after the "Free Public School Act" was passed in Pennsylvania in 1834. About 1860 this log school house was replaced by a brick building, shown next to the stone church which was used exclusively for Sunday school purposes and the instruction of catechetical classes. During the period of replacement the Sunday school sessions were held in the Stone quarry Public Schoolhouse located but a short distance from the church. 1310190

The first Treasurer's Record Book indicates the manner of the founding of the Lutheran and Reformed congregations of Maxatawny Twp. as follows,—On Dec. 26, 1826 the school constituency assembled for worship and for the purpose of establishing a union congregation. The services were conducted by the Rev. Charles G. Herman, Reformed minister, who preached a very appropriate sermon for the occasion. After the services a conference was held in reference to the building of an Evangelical Lutheran and Reformed church, on the donated land. Also, to give all who favored the erection of a church an opportunity to subscribe what each desired to give.

On Feb. 18, 1827, the services were conducted by the Rev. John Knoske, Lutheran minister. On this occasion a building committee was chosen, and John Siegfried and Henry Metzger for the Reformed, and Jacob Hefner and John H. Siegfried for the Lutherans, were named.

April 13, 1828 was appointed for the laying of the cornerstone. Previous to this date, nineteen articles of agreement were made between the two evangelical congregations and they bear the following signatures, under the above date,—David Grim, Michael Fischer, George Smith, Jonathan Leibensperger (4), John Fischer, Solomon Fisher, Charles G. Herman, Daniel Siegfried, Jacob Haasz, Matthias Leibensperger (3), Peter Schaeffer, members; Building committee; John Siegfried, Henry Metzger, Reformed; Jacob Hefner, John H. Siegfried, Lutheran; Benjamin German, Lutheran minister; Joseph S. Dubs, Reformed minister. The date when the church was dedicated is not known.

Article nineteen of the agreement provides, that a brief statement of the existing government under which the church was built be recorded and placed in the corner-stone. The statement is as follows:—

“The Government of the United States of North America consists of a President, John Quincy Adams, a Vice President, John C. Calhoun; a Senate and House of Representatives. The Government of our State of Pennsylvania consists of a Governor, John Andrew Schulze; a Senate and a House of Representatives. The seat of our Government is at Harrisburg, and our blessed country, the United States, is at present composed of twenty-four States, wherein civil and religious liberty prevail.”

This church was built of stone, found in the vicinity, in a style of architecture then prevailing, without steeple (see picture). The high pulpit, reached by stairs from both sides, was against the north central wall with the chancel in front of it. The heating stoves were centrally placed. The pipe organ occupied the south side gallery. Other galleries were on the east and west sides. The main entrance was on the south side, with entrances on the east and west sides leading to the stairways, to reach the galleries. The original cost of this church building was $2007.62, not including donations of labor and hauling. Various improvements were made from time to time. A pipe organ was bought from George S. Krause, and installed in 1847, at a cost of $771.71.

On Nov. 14, 1889 steps were taken for the erection of a new church, and on Dec. 9, 1889, at a union congregational meeting, it was unanimously decided to do so. The building committee appointed was William S. Fisher, and Percival N. Kressley, Lutherans; George L. Smith and Garion G. Guldin, Reformed. The corner stone was laid on May 18, 1890 and the building dedicated during the summer of 1891. In 1922 this building was completely renovated at a cost of $7000. The cost of the present building is $14,504.88, not including donations of labor and hauling. Items specified are the bell in the tower, cost, including freight, $601.45. The new Moeller organ cost $5950, was dedicated May 27, 1928.

The present church is built on lands that have been acquired to extend and enlarge the size of the cemetery. It is constructed of brick with basement for the Sunday School and heating plant. A large second floor sanctuary with ample and comfortable seating capacity for worship. Large memorial windows grace the sides to remind us of the splendid families they represent and who helped to build these churches. To them they brought their children to be baptized; to be instructed in the knowledge of their Saviour and confirmed; and to receive comforting messages from faithful men of God. Located on the main highway four miles east of Kutztown, Pa., (which highway is now to the rear) the church with its fine steeple and elevation can be sighted from a distance. Since the third generation members of our family have worshipped here, and a large percent of the burials in the adjoining cemetery are of our family my great grandfather, Matthias Leibensperger (3) was the first adult corpse buried on this cemetery.

As heretofore stated, the first gift of land for church school or cemetery use, was on Apr. 13, 1818, by Jacob Leibersperger (3) 120 perches; on Dec. 15, 1828 by gift from Jonathan Leibensperger, (40) perches; on Mar. 20, 1850 by purchase from Jonathan Leibensperger (4), 99 perches, price $50.—; on Sept. 16, 1865, by purchase from Jacob Leibensperger (5) 1 acre, 16 perches, price $250.; on Nov. 23, 1865, by purchase from Solomon Kuhns, 75 perches, price $117.—; on May 21, 1881 by gift from Matilda Kohler, 8.37 perches; on June 30, 1890, by purchase from Matilda Kohler, 95.43 perches, price, $89.47; on Feb. 5, 1902, by purchase from Matilda Kohler, 1 acre, 7.84 perches, price $236.—; on Aug. 30, 1919, by purchase from Gerald J. S. Kohler, 1 acre, 18.99 perches, price, $251.64. Thus $994.11 were paid for 6 acres of land included in the cemetery then. However, on June 4, 1940, an additional 16 acres, adjoining these 6 acres, were purchased from Frank Trexler, for $1500, for cemetery purposes. This land will now be developed into a new cemetery. Plans are being made by a landscape engineer, and it will be laid out according to modern methods. The prospects are for a much improved appearance, from the new highway, passing the rear of the church and cemetery.

The congregations possess a complete and perfect financial record from the time of the organization in 1828. But the records of the pastorates are not so exact. The following pastors have served the Lutherans;— John Knoske, 1827-1828; Benjamin German, 1828-1832; Isaac Roeller, 1832-1860; Benjamin E. Kramlich, 1860-Jan. 1, 1900; F. K. Berndt, Sept. 1, 1900-May 2, 1921; William S. Dry, Oct. 30, 1921, present pastor.

Reformed pastors;—Charles G. Herman, 1828-1862; Alfred J. Herman, 1862-June 21, 1892, George B. Smith, June 21, 1892-Feb. 20, 1937; Franklin D. Slifer, Aug. 1937, present pastor.

The congregations also have the proud record of furnishing an unusual number of men for the Gospel Ministry. They are as follows; Lutherans, James O. Leibensperger, D.D., St. Peters Parish, Bethlehem, Pa. (deceased).

William W. Kramlich, Herndon, Pa., Parish, (deceased).

Ambrose W. Leibensperger, Reamstown Parish, Ephrata, Pa.

George S. Kressley, D.D. Litt. D., Sect'y of Benevolence, Ministerium of Pa., Reading, Pa., (deceased).

George R. Deisher, Jonestown Parish, Jonestown, Pa.

William H. Kline, Topton Parish, Topton, Pa.

Ambrose B. C. Hering, D.D., Inner Mission of N. Y. City, (105 E. 22nd St.)

Alfred M. Stump, St. Paul's Parish, New Castle, Pa.

Harold G. Deisher, St. John's Parish, East Mauch Chunk, Pa.

The Reformed men were: Jacob S. Herman and Alfred J. Herman, sons of Rev. Chas. G. Herman, who as pastor of 16 congregations was assisted by his son, Jacob S. for 8 years. After the father's death these charges were divided, Jacob S. serving those west of Kutztown and Alfred J. those east of Kutztown.

George W. Richards, D.D., L.L.D., Pres. Reformed Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa., (retired).

George B. Smith, D.D., Maxatawny Parishes, (deceased).

Jonathan V. George, D.D., (deceased).

Ralph L. Folk, Schwartzwald Parish, Esterly, Pa.

(I am indebted to the, "Lutherans in Berks County," and the pastors and laymen of this church for much of the foregoing data). The following donated towards pictures of the Zions Churches of Maxatawny Township, viz.—

CHAPTER IV

Jacob Leibelsperger Branch

(3) JACOB LEIBELSPERGER (3), (George Adam 2, John George 1), b. Aug. 15, 1755, bapt. Oct. 12, 1755, sponsors, Jacob and Susanna Kuntz, d. Nov. 3, 1822, bur. Old Ziegel Church Cemetery, oc. miller and farmer, m. Eva Elizabeth (maiden name unknown), b. Aug. 26, 1760, d. Apr. 26, 1847, bur. Zion's Church Cemetery, Maxatawny, Pa. Lived in Salisbury Township, Lehigh County and Maxatawny Township, Berks Co., Pa. (They had 7 children and probably several more that died young).

Jacob Leibersperger took the oath of allegiance in Northampton Co., Apr. 22, 1778 before Peter Trexler, a Justice of the Peace for this county, and served in the American Revolution, as a private, as shown on page 18.

Chas. R. Roberts, of Allentown, Pa., submits an abstract of a deed dated May 27, 1794.

"Jacob Leibelsperger, miller, and wife Eve Elizabeth, of Maxatawny Township, for 1500 pounds, sold to George Leintz of Salisbury Township, miller, a messuage, grist mill, and saw mill and two tracts of land in Salisbury and Macungie Townships, of 83½ acres and 18 acres and 67 perches, the same which Philip Meehling, John Zehring and wife Elizabeth, and Catharine Meehling, only children of Peter Meehling, deceased, sold to Jacob Leibelsperger, on Apr. 14, 1794."

7 children (4th generation)

- 4 1. GEORGE LEIBELSPERGER m. Barbara (maiden name unknown).
- 5 2. JACOB LEIBELSPERGER m. Magdalena Fenstermacher and Elizabeth Klein.

The following is a translation, from the German script of the Last Will and Testament of Jacob Leibelsperger, dated April 13, 1822, recorded in Will Book C, pages 264 to 266 in the Berks County Court House at Reading, Pa.

In the Name of Our Lord Amen: I, Jacob Leibelsperger of Maxatawny Township, Berks County, State of Pennsylvania, being of sound mind and body, thanks to the Lord, hereby declare this to be my last will and testament as follows: First I recommend my soul into the hands of my Lord and Master, my body to the earth, secondly I order and bequeath my earthly goods, which God has given me, in this my last Will and Testament as follows:

First it is my will that my wife, Eva shall be bequeathed with two of my beds and mattresses for the time of her life, as well as all kitchen utensils, and the Hand watch and chest containing all cloth and dresses, and the small table. Furthermore my two sons Jacob and Jonathan shall keep account for everything they give to my wife, Eva, after my death and arrange everything after my death, as if it was my own will, in good faith and consideration. Furthermore it is my will that after my wife's death everything I have bequeathed her in this my last will and testament, as well as all that I have ordered my sons to do for her, with the exception of all victuals I have bequeathed her for her living, shall go to my two daughters, Catharina and Susanna, and to my son Jacob's son, Daniel from his first wife, all in equal shares.

Furthermore it is my will that my sons Jacob and Jonathan shall nurse or let nurse either one of us if we should become ill and confined to bed of old age, and if we should need the services of a physician, and shall go and fetch him as well as pay for his services. If one of us should die they must arrange to have us buried in a Christian Way and Manner, and pay for all funeral expenses.

Furthermore it is my will that my son Jacob shall have the new house on the big street, with about 90 acres of ground, bordering on the big property measured best from Heffner's property to the one which I bought from Jacob Siegfried: furthermore my son Jacob shall have half of the property I own in the hills of Longswamp Township: also one half of 2 acres in Greenwich Township. For these three pieces of property my son Jacob shall pay the sum of 1000 pounds, in the following manner: right after my death he shall pay 400 pounds as down payment, and one year 50 pounds interest, and continue in this manner every year until the 1000 pounds are paid up.

Furthermore, it is my will that my son Jonathan shall have the remaining part of the property of the old place, as well as one half of the property in the hills of Longswamp Township and one half of the property in Greenwich Township, for all of which he shall pay the sum of 1200 pounds as follows: one year after my death my son Jonathan shall pay 50 pounds, and the following year 75 pounds, and so forth until the 1200 pounds are paid in full. Further, it is my will that my son Jonathan shall have after my death all the fruit, (meaning corn, wheat, barley, alfalfa, &c.) in the attic, the barn, the house, and what still is in the fields, namely the fruit which I and Jonathan are cultivating together. The fruit cultivated by Jacob shall be his own. Furthermore, it is my will that my son Jonathan shall have two horses, two cows, a wagon and a plow. He shall also have a bed and mattress. My son Jonathan may not forbid my son Jacob to water his cows on his stream. Furthermore, it is my will that in case my son Jonathan should died unmarried, or without heirs, my son Jacob shall have the right to take the farm under the same conditions as given to my son Jonathan. However, should my son Jacob refuse to accept or take over the farm, it shall be sold by my executors at public auction, and distribution made, in equal shares, among my children.

Furthermore, it is my will that my sons Jacob and Jonathan shall have together the blacksmith tools. One shall have as much right of them as the other in their use.

Further, it is my will that my son Solomon, after my death shall have the right to live, for three years, free of rent in the house where he is living now. And that my daughter, Susanna, shall have two of my beds, a chest (?) with china and everything belonging to it, and a kitchen cupboard. She also shall have two cows from the herd. My wife also shall have her share, and if there is anything left of my personal property which I have not bequeathed in this my last will and testament, it is my will that it shall be sold at public auction and the receipts equally divided amongst my children.

Furthermore, it is my will that my executors after my death shall sell at public auction the land and property I bought from Jacob Siegfried, Kistler and Schmidt, on which at present my son George is living. And they shall give it to the highest bidder and hand the purchaser my deed, and pay with the money received all my legal debts. It is also my will that my executors shall give each other a deed, and the two sons Jacob and Jonathan shall issue in favor of the other heirs, namely my other children, mortgage bonds to pay yearly as much as I have ordered above, namely for the property which I have bequeathed in this my last will, and the properties shall be mortgaged until everything has been paid in full.

Furthermore, it is my will and I hereby name my two beloved sons, Jacob and Jonathan, as well as my son-in-law Heinrich Metzger, to be the executors of this will; and furthermore and finally, I testify that this shall be my last will and testament and none other.

Given under my hand and seal this 13th of April, 1822.

Jacob Leibelsperger.

CHAPTER V

John Leibelsperger Branch

(4) JOHN LEIBELSPERGER (3) (George Adam 2, John George 1) b. Aug. 26, 1757, d. Sept. 15, 1823, bur. Barrens Cem., Wash. Tp., York Co., Pa., m. about 1795, Maria Catharine (maiden name unknown) b. Nov. 2, 1759, d. Apr. 20, 1842, probably bur. Franklin Ch. Cem., Franklin Tp., York Co., Pa. (No tombstone).

John's tombstone shows John Livelsbarger. The Gallatin Family Bible shows Maria Catharine Livelsberger, but nothing about John. Their children show the family name, Livelsberger. While the first U. S. Census of 1790 records the father's name, John Libelsbarger.

John served his country well during the American Revolution, in the grade of Lieutenant. His war record, (under various spellings of the family name) is shown on page 18.

The Pa. Archives Series 3, show him taxed on 50 acres in Longswamp Tp., Berks Co., 1779-1784. Then in 1785 on 200 acres, and in 1786 on 100 acres in Weisenberg Tp., Northampton Co., Pa. Next he is shown taxed, 1788-1795, in Franklin Tp., York Co., Pa., when the record ceases, until the following Power of Attorney is located in Berks Co., Pa.

{Power of Attorney} Deed Book 25 p. 441 {Dated Dec. 2, 1807.}
{John Leibelsperger} Reading, Berks Co., Pa. {Rec'd Apr. 8, 1813.}

Know all men by these presents that I, John Leibelsperger, of Franklin Township, in the County of Adams, Penn'a, yeoman for divers good causes me hereunto moving, have made, ordained, constituted and appointed my brother, Jacob Leibelsperger, of Maxatawny Township, County of Berks, Pa., yeoman, my true and lawful attorney for me, and in my name and to my use, to ask, demand and sue for or recover or receive from the executors of the last will and testament of George Leibelsperger, late of Maxatawny Tp., deceased, such sums of money, share or shares yet coming to me out of the Estate of said George Leibelsperger.

deceased, both real and personal, giving and granting to my said attorney full power and authority to take, pursue and follow such legal course for the receiving, recovery and obtaining of the same as I myself could do.

In witness whereof I, the said John Leibelsperger, have hereunto set my hand and seal the second day of Dec. 1807.

In presence of Philip Geehn.

Signed,
John Leibelsperger.

CHAPTER VI

Frederick Leibelsperger Branch

(6) FREDERICK LEIBELSPERGER (3), (George Adam 2, John George 1), oc. farmer, b. Weisenburg Township, Northampton Co. (now Lehigh) May 2, 1761, d. July 8, 1837, m. Hannah Margaret Haines, b. Aug. 4, 1762, d. March 21, 1837, both bur. Moselem Church Cemetery, Richmond Township, Berks Co., Pa.

The Pa. Archives, Series 3, Tax Lists, show that he was taxed on 200 acres of land in 1785 and 1786 and 150 acres in 1788 in Weisenburg Township. It appears that he left Weisenburg Township some time later and acquired more valuable acres in Richmond Township, where he lived and prospered.

He took up arms during the Revolutionary War, where his name shows, Fried Lubelsperger, as indicated on page 18.

In 1837, the year in which he died, he made his last will and testament. This will, written in German Script, is recorded in the Court House at Reading, Pa., in Will Book Vol. 7, page 451. It mentions the then seven surviving children and names the sons, Solomon and Philip, as the executors.

OLD MAXATAWNY ZION'S CHURCH, SCHOOL HOUSE AND CEMETERY

HISTORICAL INTRODUCTION AND CONSTITUTION OF THE
MAXATAWNY ZIONS CHURCH, MAXATAWNY TOWNSHIP,
BERKS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

IN the name of God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost.
Amen.

Be it made known herewith, not only to the present generation, but also to the future generations, the origin and beginnings of this Union Church.

The lack of schools in this neighborhood made it necessary to aim towards establishing a school, which was effected by October 20, A. D. 1817. To further this necessary undertaking, Mr. Jacob Leibelsperger gave, by deed, $\frac{3}{4}$ of an acre of land, situated in Maxatawny Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, adjoining the properties of the said Jacob Leibelsperger, Daniel Siegfred, Peter Hehn and the Easton Road. Thereupon the supporters of the school elected two trustees, to found an educational institution. To those trustees, Daniel Hoch and John Siegfred, and to their successors in the office, the said Jonathan Leibelsperger, and his wife Eva, in the year A. D. 1818, on the 13th of April, gave a deed in trust for the supporters of the school and their descendants, at the price mentioned in the deed. Then, Mr. Matthias Leibelsperger and Heinrich Metzger were chosen as Building masters of the school, and under their supervision the school house was erected.

In the year 1826, on the second Christmas Day, the school congregation assembled for worship and for the purpose of organizing a union church. At this occasion the Rev. Charles G. Herman, pastor of the Reformed Church, delivered an appropriate sermon, based upon the gospel of the day. A discussion respecting the building of an Evangelical-Lutheran and Reformed Church, on the property mentioned before, took place after the services, and a list was made, offering an opportunity to all those in favor of a church to voluntarily subscribe their contribution.

On February 18, A. D. 1827, the Rev. John Knoski, Lutheran Pastor, preached on the text: Kings I, Chapter 8, Verses 18 and 19. At this occasion the following gentlemen were elected as building masters of the church to be erected, viz. by the Reformed side John Siegfred and Heinrich Metzger and by the Lutheran side Jacob Hefner and John H. Siegfred.

Finally a day was designated, viz. the 13th of April, A. D. 1828, for the cornerstone laying of the church, on the above mentioned property. But prior to this festive occasion the two congregations, trusting upon the aid of God, came to an agreement on the following articles:

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

The deed is always to be in the custody of the trustees of the school, by virtue of a writing made October 20, A. D. 1817.

ARTICLE II

The Lutheran and Reformed Church is to be built at the expense of both congregations; should the one congregation be stronger than the other, or should the one be able to contribute more towards the building of the church, the stronger congregation shall not assume any special privileges whatever, nor cast reproach at the weaker congregation, but the church shall be built in true equanimity, and all rights and liberties shall be and remain equal.

ARTICLE III

The supervision of erecting the church building shall be in the hands of the building masters elected for this purpose, who shall build said church at the expense of the two congregations. Both congregations obligate themselves to assist the building masters, as per the list of subscriptions, and to aid in paying the debt of the church.

ARTICLE IV

The vestry of each congregation shall consist of two building masters, two elders, three deacons, one trustee, who shall be supervisor of the school, and one treasurer for both congregations. The treasurer, the building masters and the elders may remain in office as long as they wish to do so and as long as they perform the duties of their office faithfully. The term of office of the deacons is to be three years; one deacon to retire from office each year, when another deacon shall be elected in place of the retiring member; however, the deacons may be re-elected. The trustees, who, in connection with the other members of the vestry, are to deliberate on all matters pertaining the school, shall be elected every two years, on the 1st of January, by virtue of the school regulations.

ARTICLE V

Each congregation elects its own pastor; however, those members, whose wives belong to the other denomination, are entitled to vote for the pastor of the congregation to which their wives belong.

The salaries of the pastors shall be collected by the deacons; each deacon to hand the salary to his respective pastor.

The pastor and all the other officials of the church shall be elected by majority vote, to be taken by lines to be written upon the altar. However, unless the pastor is a properly ordained Lutheran or Reformed minister, and unless his conduct and teachings are in accordance with the spirit of Christianity, he cannot be elected, nor accepted, as pastor.

ARTICLE VI

The Sundays and the Festival Days belong to both congregations in common.

ARTICLE VII

The deacons, whose minister conducts the services, shall occupy the deacon pews, and they shall prevent any nuisance or disorder in the church, or outside of the church. Otherwise no member shall have a right to a special seat in the church, with the exception of the building masters, elders, the treasurer and the trustees.

ARTICLE VIII

Each congregation may conduct Communion Services in accordance with the order of its particular Church, and the deacons of the other congregation shall see to it that no disturbances may occur at these sacred services, and especially that the minister may not be insulted during the services.

ARTICLE IX

The vessels, which are being required for the administration of the Holy Sacraments, as well as the Altar cloths and the Collection Bag, are to be furnished by the two congregations, for the common use.

ARTICLE X

The offerings collected on Sundays and on Festival Days shall be held, and used, in common. At the Lutheran Service the offerings are to be placed in the custody of a Lutheran deacon, and at a Reformed Service in the custody of a Reformed deacon. A common accounting shall be made annually, on the 1st of January, when the deacons shall transfer these moneys to the treasurer, who shall use these to meet the expenses.

ARTICLE XI

If donations, or legacies, are being given to the Union Church, the treasurer shall accept such, to be used in common.

ARTICLE XII

A Record Book shall be kept in the church, in which the baptisms, etc. shall be recorded.

ARTICLE XIII

There shall be used but one key to the church and one to the altar. These keys shall be in the custody of the deacons, who shall always keep them at the nearest and safest place after they have been used.

ARTICLE XIV

The cemetery at the church shall be for both congregations in common.

ARTICLE XV

A suitable man, of good character, shall be engaged to lead the singing at the services and at funerals.

ARTICLE XVI

The vestry has authority in all matters pertaining to the singing leader, school teacher and the school. Such matters to be decided in consideration of the circumstances, requirements of the times and their merits.

ARTICLE XVII

This union church shall bear the name Maxatawny Zions Church, it shall be independent of corporation and General Synods, and shall be, and remain, an evangelical union church, to the end of the days.

ARTICLE XVIII

Should against all exceptions disputes arise in both, or in one of the congregations, in matters pertaining to the church, on whatever subject, such disputes, if in both congregations, shall be settled by both congregations. Should the differences affect the one congregation only, the minister, vestry, and other members shall settle the matter, and if ever possible shall avoid it being brought before the civil authorities.

ARTICLE XIV

These articles, approved by both congregations, and signed in the name of both congregations by the building masters and the members in addition to a bible, a Reformed and a Lutheran catechism, as well as a short account of the government of our country at the present time, shall be placed into the corner-stone, in everlasting memory, and the said articles shall be recorded in the Church Book, for constant remembrance and strict observation. That the members of the two Evangelical congregations, the Lutheran as well as the Reformed congregation, are willing to adhere to all the articles contained in this writing, we, the undersigned building masters and members, confirm herewith.

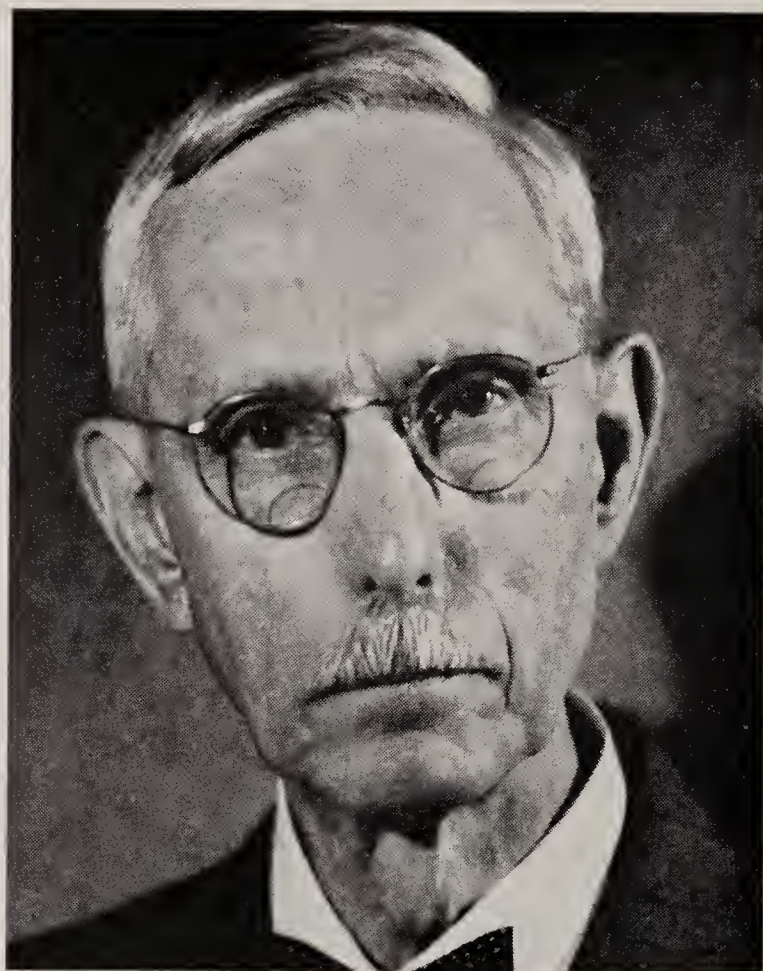

PRESENT MAXATAWNY ZION'S CHURCH AND CEMETERY

Historical Sketch of Present Maxatawney Church and Cemetery

ON Nov. 14, 1889 steps were taken for the erection of a new church, and on Dec. 9, 1889, at a union congregational meeting, it was unanimously decided to do so. The building committee appointed was William F. Fisher and Percival N. Kressley, Lutherans; George L. Smith and Garion G. Guldin, Reformed. The cornerstone was laid on May 18, 1890 and the building dedicated during the summer of 1891. In 1922 this building was completely renovated at a cost of $7000. The cost of the present building is $14,504.88, not including donations of labor and hauling. Items specified are the bell in the tower, cost including freight, $601.45. The new Moeller organ, cost $5950, was dedicated May 27, 1928.

The present church is built on lands that have been acquired to extend and enlarge the size of the cemetery. It is constructed of brick with basement for the Sunday School and heating plant. A large second floor sanctuary with ample and comfortable seating capacity for worship. Large memorial windows grace the sides to remind us of the splendid families they represent and who helped to build these churches. To them they brought their children to be baptized; to be instructed in the knowledge of their Saviour, and confirmed; and to receive comforting messages from faithful men of God. Located on the main highway four miles east of Kutztown, Pa., (which highway is now to the rear) the church with its fine steeple and elevation can be sighted from a distance. Since the third generation members of our family have worshiped here, and a large percent of the burials in the adjoining cemetery are of our family. My great grandfather, Matthias Leibensperger III was the first adult corpse buried on this cemetery.

ELMER I. LEIBENSPERGER

Historian of the Leibensperger Family Association

THE Leibensperger Family Association presents this short biography of the historian and writer of this book not only because of the propriety of such a biography as an introduction but also as an opportunity to indicate the appreciation that can not be expressed in any tribute, however extensive.

Any acknowledgement of the author's efforts is perforce inadequate since the full reward for the perseverance and patience in his work can not be made in terms of gratitude. That reward is found in the value of this book.

ELMER ISAAC LEIBENSPERGER was born on May 6th, 1866 on a farm in Maxatawny Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, where he spent the early years of his boyhood. In 1872 the family left the farm to take up residence in Topton, Pa. where Elmer started to school. During the time that he was in grammar school in Topton the family moved again, back to the farm, and Elmer was transferred to the district schools of Berks County, completing his schooling there in 1884. He then entered the Keystone State Normal School, now known as the Teachers Training College, in Kutztown. He received his certificate in the fall of the same year and prepared to start teaching in Maxatawny Township where he taught for four terms. In 1888 he became teacher in Ontelaunee Township for one more term. Elmer had now become of age and it was in Ontelaunee that he met and married Mary Gromis. Elmer discontinued teaching in 1889 and subsequently took a position as clerk in a county store.

In 1890 Elmer entered the Eastman National Business College in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. where he took a business course, graduating in September of the same year. The College had recommended him to the J. L. Rumbarger Lumber Company of Dobbin, West Virginia with whom he took a position as bookkeeper. He remained with this company for three years, then going to Davis, West Virginia to work for the Beaver Creek Lumber Company of that town. He worked in Davis for two and a half years, also in the capacity of bookkeeper.

In the Spring of 1895 Elmer took the Civil Service examination in order to qualify for a position in the Railway Mail Service, receiving his appointment in that service in 1896. In the same year of this appointment Elmer moved with his family to Baltimore, Maryland where he took up residence. Elmer continued in the Railway Mail Service on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad until his retirement in 1930.

It was in 1930 that the Leibensperger Family Association requested of Elmer, who at that time was president of the Association, that he start work on a family history. Elmer accepted the task, resigning as president of the Association several years later in order to devote all of his efforts towards the writing of this book. He has continued the work on the Leibensperger Family History until its completion on the date of this printing.

"WACHT HAUS"
(Watch House)

"WACHT HAUS" built prior to 1760 by Peter Feterolf in Albany Township, Berks County, Pa. The father of Caroline Fetherolf, who married Jacob Leibensperger.

This was a community house to which the neighbors went in case of Indian raids (at this time Indians were located at Moselem and also about four miles west from this house). The construction of this house was heavy white oak not less than one foot thick and from one foot to two feet wide. Around the house were gunsight holes seven feet above the floor through which those on the inside could shoot and drive off the Indians. In the cellar was a good water spring, a strong fireplace like wall for protection in case the Indians should by chance enter this cellar and aside of this, a stairway that could be pulled up to the ceiling which was about 18 feet above the cellar floor. A white man had been scalped about 200 yards west from this building. On the picture, right to left are: daughter Jane Leibensperger, son Alfred, Rebecca, wife of son Jacob, Catherine Leibensperger, Jacob Leibensperger the father, and wife Caroline Fetherolf whose father built this house, Amelia, wife of James, Jacob Jr., James and Franklin. The little girl aside of Grandfather is Estella Hilbert, on the step John K. Stump, Oscar Hilbert, Harvey Leibensperger, son of Jacob and Jacob Stump, son of John K. and Catherine.

Location—1½ miles east from Kempton, Pa., originally more than 200 acre farm.

REV. JAMES OLIVER LEIBENSPERGER, D.D.

The Reverend James Oliver Leibensperger, D.D., was dean of the clergy in Bethlehem, Pa. and pastor of St. Peter's Church for nearly 36 years. When he retired from the active pastorate on November 1, 1937, he was honored with the appointment of pastor emeritus.

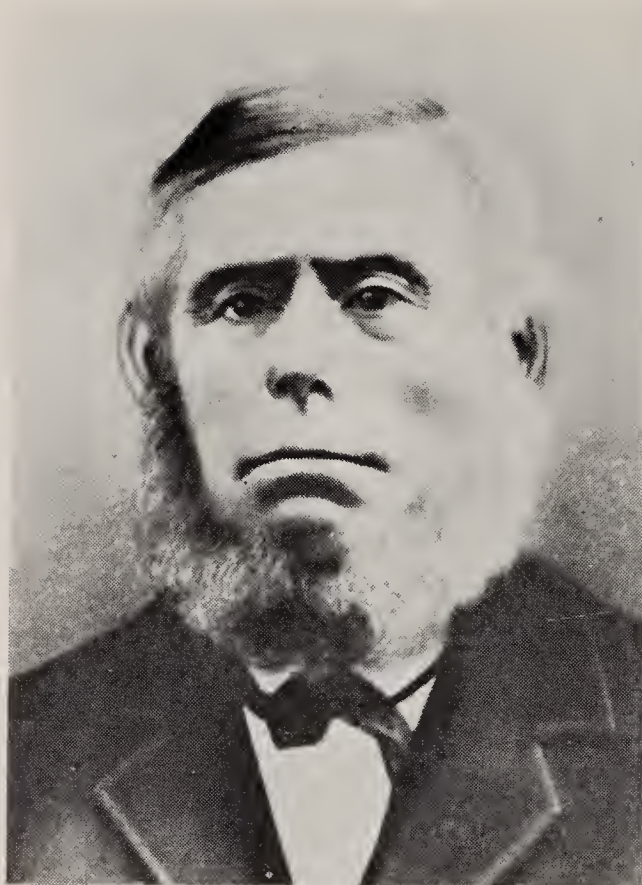

Born in Maxatawny Township, Berks County, Pa. March 26, 1862, Dr. Leibensperger was a son of Stephen and Hannah Susanna nee Deisher Leibensperger. After receiving his preliminary education at what is known as the Kutztown State Teachers' College, he entered Muhlenberg College graduating with the class of 1884, and from the Seminary in Philadelphia with the class of 1887. Having accepted a call to Zion Church at Girardville, he remained for about two years when called to the Lincoln Charge, Lancaster County, including St. John's Church, Denver, Pa. At the close of 1901 he assumed the pastorate of St. Peter's Church, Bethlehem, where his outstanding work was the rebuilding and enlarging of the church edifice and the doubling of the membership of the congregation.

As a staunch friend and supporter of Muhlenberg College for many years, the alumni named him a member of the Board of Trustees, serving in his third term at the time of his death on November 5, 1941. He suffered from a lingering illness effected by a stroke.

His widow is the former Fianna E. Miller of Topton. A brother, the Reverend Ambrose W. Leibensperger, of Ephrata, Pa. also survives together with another brother Stephen and a sister Alice, both of Kutztown. Interment was made in the family plot in Fairview Cemetery, Kutztown, Pa.

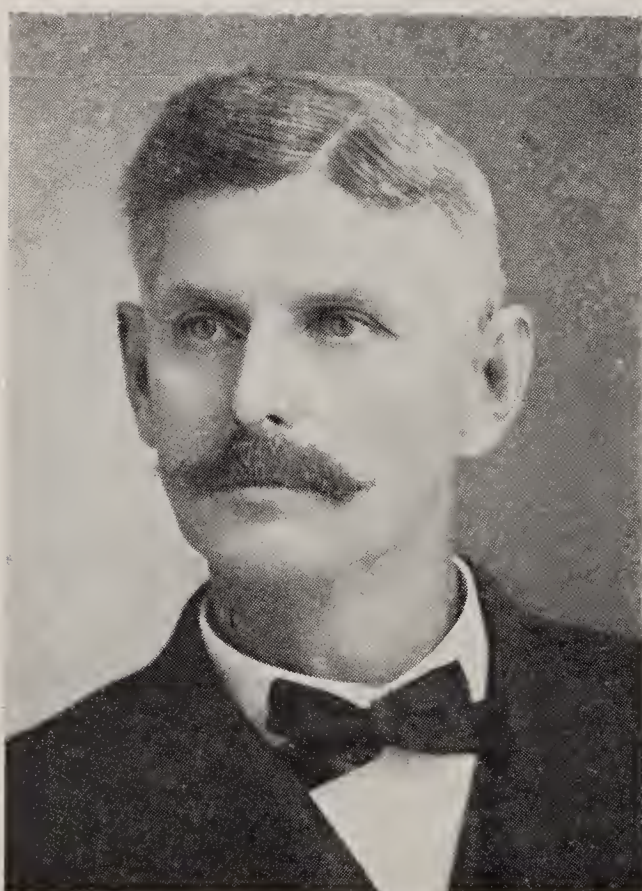

Officiated at Baptisms, 2169; Confirmed, 1571; Officiated at Weddings, 947; Conducted Funerals, 1045; Sermons Delivered, 3850.

The Homestead of the first settler that arrived in the Northwestern part of Ohio from Pennsylvania.

It is located west of Montpelier, Ohio and adjoining the home of Carl Michael, whose wife is a direct descendent of the builder.

The Ohio organization has its yearly reunion at Montpelier Fair Grounds on the second Sunday in August, when regular yearly business meetings are held, officers elected, reports of the year's happenings made and basket luncheons served in picnic style.

The meetings are well attended and every one has a very good time participating in the games and contests. Their hospitality is of the best.

Both the author and the president of the Pennsylvania organization have partaken of same on numerous occasions and always wish to come again.

CHAPTER VII

Matthias Leibelsperger Branch

(8) MATTHIAS LEIBELSPERGER (3), (George Adam 2, John George 1), b. Weisenburg Township, Northampton Co., Pa., (now Lehigh Co.) Nov. 4, 1764, confirmed April 15, 1781, at the Lehigh Church, d. Feb. 9, 1830, m. May 25, 1790, Catharina Lichtenwalner, daughter of John and Catharina Stattler Lichtenwalner, b. Macungie Township, May 13, 1765, d. Aug. 12, 1831, both bur. Zions Church Cemetery, Maxatawny, Pa.

He was engaged in farming on a large tract of land in Maxatawny Township, Berks Co., Pa., and adjoining other large tracts of his older brother, Jacob. It is mentioned by the term, "Plantation."

Like his brother, Frederick, he fought for the independence of the Colonies, during the last year of the American Revolution, (1783) where his name is shown, Mattheis Lubelsperger, as indicated on page 18.

I have the original copy of an agreement dated March 9, 1830, which indicates that there was a last will and testament of Matthias, which names the sons Daniel, David and Benjamin, as the duly appointed and constituted executors.

The agreement is signed by the six surviving children, who gave their consent to the widow and the executors, for the estate to remain in their possession for one year. "They shall finish and complete the building of a house on the plantation, situate in Maxatawny Township, with all convenient speed. They shall prepare for market and sell the grain now on hand, and shall sow the summer grain for the next season, harvest it, convert it into money, and shall suffer the grain sown in the ensuing fall to remain on the place, &c."

CHAPTER IX

Daniel Leibelsperger Branch

(10) DANIEL LEIBELSPERGER (3), (George Adam 2, John George 1), b. Weisenburg Township, Northampton Co., Pa. (now Lehigh Co.), March 8, 1769, bapt. March 12, 1769 at the Ziegels Church, sponsors, Daniel Stambach and Anna Sabina Hess, oc. farmer, m. about 1788 to Catharina Ledig, daughter of John Ledig.

Daniel was the youngest son of George Adam and was given the same name of a brother, born in 1763, who died young. It appears that after his marriage he located in certain counties of Pa., among them Berks, York, Adams and Northumberland, where some of his children were born. However, he kept moving on, as the country opened for settlement, and finally located in Ohio about 1826. I have found no record of the date of his death or place of burial.

He had a family of 5 sons and 4 daughters, of whom I have been able to trace only the descendants of four of these sons. Like other branches, these descendants changed the spelling of the family name as shown below.

9 children (4th generation)

CHAPTER XI

Leibensperger Family Association and Reunions

"ORIGIN OF THE LEIBENSPERGER REUNION."

In the middle of February, 1925, when we gathered at the home of Mrs. Ellen A. Seip in Wescosville, Pa., to attend the funeral of the late Miss Rebecca L. Leibensperger (mostly nephews and nieces of the above) it was mentioned that we find no time to visit each other, only meet on such sad occasions, and then there is always one less.

Mrs. Ida A. Marks, then of Elysburg, Pa., suggested that we meet and have "a get-together" meeting at least once a year. It was then and there decided that Oscar P. Leibensperger be the temporary President and Mrs. Ida A. Marks the temporary Secretary, with the understanding that she notify the descendants of the David Leibensperger family to attend the first gathering on Saturday, Sept. 5, 1925, at the farm house of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Leibensperger, near Wescosville, Pa. Too much credit cannot be given to Mrs. Ida A. Marks for conceiving the idea of holding these annual meetings.

THE FIRST MEETING OF THE DAVID LEIBENSPERGER DESCENDANTS.

Wescosville, Pa., Sept. 25, 1925.

The first annual Leibensperger Reunion was held at the farm house of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Leibensperger. The meeting was called to order at 3:30 p. m. by Oscar P. Leibensperger, acting as the temporary chairman. After a few remarks by the chairman the following nominations were made: President, Oscar P. Leibensperger; first Vice President, Howard R. Leibensperger; second Vice President, Mrs. Ida A. Marks; Secretary, Miss Grace D. Leibensperger; Treasurer, Allen M. Leibensperger; Historian, Mrs. Joseph C. Bachman.

A motion was made by Mrs. Ida A. Marks and seconded by Mrs. John Scull, that the foregoing nominees be elected by acclamation, as there were no two candidates for any one office. The motion was carried.

Mrs. Fred. Fisher, of Kutztown, Pa., a descendant of the family of Daniel Leibensperger, asked permission to join our family, and was told to communicate with the Secretary of this organization.

A motion was made by Mrs. Ida A. Marks, seconded by Milton D. J. Leibensperger, that the regular Annual Leibensperger Reunion be held the first Saturday after Labor Day. This was agreed to. Also, that the next Reunion in 1926 would be held at the same place, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Leibensperger. (However, before the date of the meeting arrived it was realized that larger accommodations would be needed and the Kutztown, Pa., park was selected for the 1926 Reunion.)

A rising vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Leibensperger for their hospitality in entertaining the assembly.

A letter of regret from Elmer I. Leibensperger, of Baltimore, Md., was read, deploring his absence.

The following committees were appointed: (Program Committee), Mrs. Fred. Fisher, Miss Grace D. Leibensperger, Mrs. Harry Leibensperger, Mrs. Robert Shankweiler, Mrs. Joseph C. Bachman, Mrs. Ellen A. Seip. (Publicity Committee), Mrs. Joseph C. Bachman, Miss Mary E. Walbert, Miss Grace D. Leibensperger, Mrs. John Scull, Oscar P. Leibensperger, Elmer I. Leibensperger.

The names of Aaron A. Leibensperger and Mrs. Ellen A. Seip were recorded as honorary presidents. The president read an interesting bit of history of the Leibensperger Family as follows:

"The first Leibensperger of whom there is any record in America was George Adam Leibelsperger, who came from Darmstadt, Hesse, Germany, in Europe, in 1739, at the age of 16 years. He is considered the father of the Leibenspergers in America." (The present historian finds that this bit of history comes from the records of Solomon Leibelsperger, that it can not be verified from the records in Germany and that there is a brief record of John George Leipersberger, prior to the above.)

The oldest person present was Aaron A. Leibensperger, from McKeansburg, Pa. (age 77), who came the greatest distance (45 miles), with horse and buggy. The youngest person present was Betty Mohr (age 1 year, 10½ months), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Mohr of Allentown, Pa.

Long tables were placed on the lawn, under the trees, and everything imaginable in the line of good eats were disposed of. All agreed the first Leibensperger Reunion was a great success.

The following 48 persons attended this first Reunion: Mrs. Ellen A. Seip, Oscar P. Leibensperger, Aaron A. Leibensperger, Mr. and Mrs. Milton D. J. Leibensperger and daughter Cora, Mrs. Annie R. Gernert, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gernert, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shankweiler and son Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Leibensperger, Mr. and Mrs. Allen M. Leibensperger, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Leibensperger, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey R. Mohr and daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mohr and daughter Betty, Miss Grace D. Leibensperger, Mr. and Mrs. John Scull, Mrs. Ida A. Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Bachman, Miss Harriet I. Walbert, Miss Mary E. Walbert, Mr. and Mrs. O. Harry Leibensperger, Miss Lucy L. Leibensperger, Mrs. Eva R. Haney and daughter Myrtle L., Charlie Leibensperger, Miss Fannie Englert, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. B. Leibensperger and son George B., Mr. and Mrs. James Seip and daughter, Mrs. Alice Heilman, Mrs. Eva Fisher and son Carl S.

MRS. AGNES R. BACHMAN, Secretary pro tem.

THE SECOND ANNUAL REUNION OF THE LEIBENSPERGER DESCENDANTS.

Kutztown, Pa., Park, Sept. 11, 1926.

The meeting was called to order at 2:30 p. m. by the President, Oscar P. Leibensperger, who announced that because of his physical condition he felt unable to preside. He appointed Elwood J. Leibensperger, a nephew from Ephrata, Pa., to do so. The following program was rendered:

Opening hymn, "My Country 'tis of Thee," Mrs. Eva Fisher at the piano. Invocation by Rev. James O. Leibensperger, D.D., of Bethlehem, Pa. Recitation by Thomas Henninger of Schantz Springs, Pa. Piano solo by Miss Myrtle L. Haney of Allentown, Pa. Offering was lifted.

Xylophone and piano by Carl S. Fisher and mother, Mrs. Eva Fisher. Piano solo by Miss Carolyn Fegely of Allentown, Pa.

An address by Mrs. Ellen A. (Leibensperger) Seip of Westcosville, Pa., was enjoyed, she being the oldest of the family present (73 years). She related about picnics held 50 years ago in contrast to the present day gatherings; changes in lighting, dress, mode of conveyance and many other interesting things. Brought to mind the difference between the children of today and 50 years ago. Which are the most contented? is a question for thoughts. Mentioned some very entertaining incidents that happened during her childhood days. She exhorted us all to remember to read our Bibles and closed with the assurance that we could feel confident our forefathers were an honest, faithful, God-fearing and law abiding people.

Vocal solo by Miss Anna Seip, accompanied by Mrs. James Seip of Allentown, Pa. Piano solo by Miss Anna Shankweiler of Allentown, Pa.

A splendid address by the Rev. James O. Leibensperger, D.D., a Daniel Leibensperger descendant, reviewing the history of the Leibensperger Family from 200 years ago, all christian characters to the present day.

The regular business meeting was opened and conducted by Elwood J. Leibensperger.

Previous Minutes were read and approved.

An "order of business procedure" was offered and adopted.

The Secretary, Miss Grace D. Leibensperger, tendered her resignation. The reason given for so doing, because she is sojourning in Florida for at least a year.

The question was brought up relative to placing a memorial in the new Zions Church of Maxatawny Township in honor and memory of David Leibensperger and his wife, Lydia Schmoyer, it being their place of worship. It was moved by Oscar P. Leibensperger and seconded by Allen M. Leibensperger, that a subscription list towards the memorial be started today. The motion was carried.

The following officers were elected: Honorary President, Oscar P. Leibensperger; Presiding President, Elwood J. Leiben-sperger; first Vice President, Rev. James O. Leibensperger; second Vice President, Elmer I. Leibensperger; Secretary, Mrs. Joseph C. Bachman; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Fred. Fisher; Treasurer, Allen M. Leibensperger; Historians, Mrs. Ellen A. Seip, Mrs. Alice Heilman. All committees were retained. Forty-seven persons attended this Reunion.

MRS. JOSEPH C. BACHMAN, Secretary.

THE THIRD ANNUAL LEIBENSPERGER REUNION.

Kutztown, Pa., Park, Sept. 10, 1927.

“Part of Minutes”—It was announced that the Memorial Altar Vestments in memory of David Leibensperger and his wife, Lydia, were formally presented to the Zions Church in Maxatawny Township on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 2, 1927.

Oscar P. Leibensperger, the first President, now the Honorary President, appointed Mrs. Agnes R. Bachman, Secretary, to present these Vestments in the presence of a number of Leibensperger descendants. They were graciously accepted by the Lutheran pastor, Rev. William S. Dry.

Mrs. Ellen A. Seip, the only surviving daughter of David and Lydia, made a fitting address. Oscar P. was the youngest of their eleven children, while Mrs. Agnes R. Bachman is a granddaughter.

The donors towards this memorial fund were all David and Lydia Leibensperger descendants. They are as follows, viz.—Oscar P. Leibensperger, Mrs. Annie R. Gernert, Elmer I. Leibensperger, Milton D. J. Leibensperger, Howard R. Leibensperger and family, Mrs. Ellen A. Seip, Miss Catharine S. Fegely, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dayton Fegely and family, Mrs. John Scull, Mr. and Mrs. O. Harry Leibensperger, Mrs. Mary Fegely Mowrer, Mrs. Ida A. Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Bachman, Miss Mary E. Walbert, Elwood J. Leibensperger.

These Altar Vestments were stolen from the church in the summer of 1933 and have never been recovered.

MRS. AGNES R. BACHMAN, Secretary.

THE FOURTH ANNUAL LEIBENSPERGER REUNION.

Kutztown, Pa., Park, Sept. 8, 1928.

"Part of Minutes"—The death of the Honorary President, Oscar P. Leibensperger, which occurred on March 28, 1928, was reported. A standing Resolution Committee was appointed as follows: Elmer I. Leibensperger, of Baltimore, Md.; Miss Grace D. Leibensperger, of Allentown, Pa., and Miss Mary S. Leibensperger, of Kutztown, Pa.

The meeting date was changed from Saturday to Sunday, it being claimed that more people could be present on the latter day. Also that an earlier date would be preferred in order to take advantage of the greatest daylight.

MRS. AGNES R. BACHMAN, Secretary.

THE FIFTH ANNUAL LEIBENSPERGER REUNION.

Kutztown, Pa., Park, Sunday, July 14, 1929.

"Part of Minutes"—A permanent date was set for the meetings and the place as follows: Always on the second Sunday in July and at the Kutztown, Pa., Park. A committee for a Family Tree was suggested.

The following officers were elected: President, Elmer I. Leibensperger; first Vice President, Elwood J. Leibensperger; second Vice President, Stephen S. Leibensperger; Treasurer, Allen M. Leibensperger; Secretary, Agnes R. Bachman.

MRS. AGNES R. BACHMAN, Secretary.

THE TENTH ANNUAL LEIBENSPERGER REUNION.

Kutztown, Pa., Park, Sunday, July 8, 1934.

"From the Minutes"—The meeting was called to order by the President, Elmer I. Leibensperger. The following officers were elected: President, Dr. George F. Leibensperger; Historian, Elmer I. Leibensperger; Assistant Recording Secretary, Mrs. Lucy S. Shankweiler.

The newly elected President appointed the following committees—Resolution: Elmer I. Leibensperger, Mrs. Jennie K. Leibensperger, Miss Mary S. Leibensperger. Program: Mrs.

Eva Fisher, Mrs. Lucy S. Shankweiler, Mrs. Jennie K. Leibensperger, Herbert Gernert. Reception: Mrs. Eva Fisher, Mrs. Elwood Feick, Mrs. Mary Webber, Mrs. Lucy S. Shankweiler, Elwood Leibensperger. Ushers: Carl Fisher, Paul Fritz, Reuben Leibensperger.

MRS. AGNES R. BACHMAN, Secretary.

THE ELEVENTH ANNUAL LEIBENSBERGER REUNION.

Kutztown, Pa., Park, Sunday, July 14, 1935.

“Important Resolutions from the Minutes”—

“Moved by Mr. Calvin Stump and seconded by Mrs. Mary Webber, that Mr. Elmer I. Leibensperger be appointed the Editor-in-chief in the formation of the data he has, he be designated the business manager and empowered to select assistants as he sees fit. Agreed to.”

“It was the consensus of the gathering for Mr. Leibensperger to ascertain the price per copy when in book form. Also, to send out questionnaires to all adults, to find out who will buy a copy. And to solicit for photographs, in this way raising funds towards the printing and binding of same.”

“It was further moved by Mr. Calvin Stump and seconded by Mrs. Mary Webber, that when the book is sold Mr. Elmer I. Leibensperger be empowered to deduct his expenses before any of the proceeds are turned over to the Association. Agreed to.”

MRS. AGNES R. BACHMAN, Secretary.

The present officers of the Reunion are as follows:

Honorary President, Mrs. Ida A. Marks, 211 Summit St., Norristown, Pa.
